JUDGMENT
AND PROB.
/ COMMITMENT
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of One Hundred and Twenty (120) Months on each of Counts 1 and 7 of the Indictment, to be served concurrently. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of Five (5) Years on each of Counts 1 and 7, all such terms to run concurrently, under the following terms and conditions: 1. comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318; 2. participate in outpatient substance abuse treatment and submit to drug and alcohol testing, as instructed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision; and 3. as directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation, as to all sources and amounts of income and all expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall provide federal and state income tax returns as requested by the Probation Officer.

Pursuant to Section 5E1.2(f) of the Guidelines, all fines are waived, including the costs of imprisonment and supervision, as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States Release set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

☐ This is a direct commitment to the Bureau of Prisons, and the Court has NO OBJECTION should the Bureau of Prisons designate defendant to a Community Corrections Center
